To the child's parents

Viersen, xx.xx.xxxx

District of Viersen welcome letter

As District Administrator for the District of Viersen I, Dr. Andreas Coenen, would like to congratulate you on the birth of your child , on

The birth of a child is always a joyful event and means a change in our everyday lives. Many things will still have to be worked out before a routine can be established.

Perhaps you have questions or need information for which the district of Viersen would like to assist you with help and advice.

For a personal consultation, please contact Ms Nina Becker: tel. 02162-391869, email address: nina.becker@kreis-viersen.de.

For general information and to support families with children, the district of Viersen has launched the online Family Guide (A.U.F.), which provides targeted support in your search so that you can find exactly what is important to you.

www.familienwegweiser-kreisviersen.de

What information can you find in the Family Guide?

- Are you looking to communicate with other parents?
- Do you have questions about your child's development or would you like to attend a baby swimming course?
- Do you need support or advice on your journey post pregnancy and beyond?
- and much more

Then the Family Guide is just the thing for you to find a suitable offer in your area!

How can you use the Family Guide?

The Family Guide offers you the possibility to search specifically for the answers that are important to you!

Whether under keywords such as "swimming for babies" or a detailed query according to your interests, such as "What to do for your health", the Family Guide can help you find a suitable suggestion for courses or consultation offers, quickly and easily.

You have the possibility to search directly in the vicinity of your place of residence and work, or specifically for offers for your child's age group.

I would like to invite you to take the opportunity to browse through the District of Viersen's Family Guide.

I would be grateful for any suggestions regarding the Family Guide and of course my staff are available to answer any questions you may have.

I wish you and your family all the best, health, strength and contentment for this new phase of your lives.

Sincerely

Ihr Landrat

Dr. Andreas Coenen
